

His Sword and His Shield

Lisa Hains Barker

Men's Choir

Keri Hains Kammerman

8

See the bat - tle is rag - ing a - round us, We are
We are changed when we put on His ar - mor, When we Just as fair as the sun on the moun - tains, And as We will stand with the power of His Priest - hood In the trou - bled on ev - 'ry side. Per - se - cu - ted, but nev - er for - choose to draw near where He stands, As we shake off our own mor - tal clear as the bold ris - ing moon, Like the bu - gles that blow in the truth of the Gos - pel re - stored, Then dis - perse the most ter - ri - ble

3

8

6

8

sak - en, Cast - down, yet in Him we a - bide! When it fail - ings, And more faith - ful - ly keep His com - mands. We are dis - tance Mark - ing quick - ly the time and the tune, Like a dark - ness By the light of His glo - ri - ous word! We'll roll seems we must cer - tain - ly per - ish, We're re - vived by His nour - ish - ing proved in vic - to - ri - ous bat - tles, Cleansed and tem - pered by wield - ing His riv - er gains strength as it rush - es From the steep crag - gy heights up a - on with the charge of sal - va - tion, For we know that it nev - er will word. Heed His call, swell the ranks of His sol - diers! Don His sword 'Till His Spir - it's our con - stant com - pan - ion And we're above, Like a ter - ri - ble ar - my with ban - ners Comes His yield. Find our strength in our Lord and our Sav - ior When we breast - plate and hel - met and sword!

9

12

15

 filled with the might of the Lord!
 king - dom, His gos - pel of love!
 take up His sword and His shield!

References: 2 Corinthians 4:8-9; D&C 5:14