

All This and More

Lynn Watkins

Wendy Jensen

♩=130 Affectionately

I see the light in the dark, Drink liv-ing wa - ter in the drought, Feel the an-chor of I stand in strength on His rock. My wea-ry soul rests in His flock. His di-vine joy will hope in rough sea. Now my emp - ti-ness is filled with the Bread of Life, For my set sor-rows free. As He drank the bit-ter cup He be - came my King, For my Sav - ior is all this, and more to me. The chains that bind, He will loose. When I am Sav - ior is all this, and more to me.

lost He shows the way. He will change eyes to see as he sees. He will show me how all things can be for my good, For my Sav - ior is all this and more to me.

As I seek to come unto Christ, I have been drawn to the "I Am" statements that the Savior made in the scriptures. He used powerful images and metaphors to help us understand all the ways he strengthens, supports, teaches and cares for us. This hymn is a grateful acknowledgment that words cannot describe all He is to me.--LW