The Lesson

Traditional: 'Cowboy's Lament'

Bruce T. Forbes

Lyrics (verses, as set under the music):

1. As I - walked down the long road to Em- ma - us; As I walked down to Em - ma - us that
2. "Old Fath - er," he hailed me, "May I walk on with thee? And news from the ci - ty please tell to
3. "The ra - bbi named Jes - us from Ga - li - lee's moun - tains- They've beat - en; tor - tured; and hung on to a
4. "He's ri - sen as prom - ised," as - sured the young rab - bi; "To ful - fill all the Law and the Pro-

9

day- I "Walk
me." "Walk This tree. This
- phets." "Pray,

met a young
with me," I morn - ing the tell me," I

rab - bi all told him, "But bo - dy from
asked him in

dressed in white
news from the
his tomb has ac - cent so

13

lin - en; All
ci - ty- It
van - ished; His earn - est, "How

dressed in white
be - ars no
bod - y has
has he ful -

lin - en and good will for van-ished, It's filled all the

bright as the day.
you or for me.
not to be seen."
Law and Prop - hets?"