

What Will We Give?

(Easter Hymn)

Lyrics by Susan Noyes Anderson

Music by Andrew Moore

Solemnly ♩ = 68

1. The Sav - ior in Geth - sem - a - ne con - sumed our sins on
2. Christ sealed His gift in grief and pain, re - newed each heart in
3. His tem - ples pierced by thorn - y crown, He laid His tor - tured
4. The tomb re - ceived Him as her own; dis - ci - ples wa - vered,
5. For Christ the Lord a - toned for all; no grave could hold Him,
6. A Broth - er gave Him - self in love. The ris - en Lord now bend - ed knee, took eve - ry sor - row, eve - ry loss and sa - cred rain of Liv - ing Wa - ter, life - blood spilled. The bod - y down. The sa - cred flesh, a - bused and torn, roused left a - lone, for - get - ting prom - is - es pro - found: The nor fore - stall the bless - ings of e - ter - ni - ty. He waits a - bove. What will we give? May our lives be re - broke them on the rough - hewn cross.

ran - som, paid. The law, ful - filled.
heav'n and earth to weep, to mourn.
ties of death would be un - bound.
lived! He lives! to set men free.
flec - tions of His char - i - - ty.

Lyrics copyright (c) 2017 by Susan Noyes Anderson

Music copyright (c) 2021 by Andrew Moore

Making copies for incidental, non-commercial church and home use is permitted