

Truth Restored

Confidently

♩ = 96-104

Spencer & Brenley Burton

It start - ed with a prayer, a plea to know the truth. With con -
A test - a - ment of Christ hid - den in Cu - mor - ah's hill. A - With strong de - sires to be washed clean in - spired by sa - cred words. On - Each one of us to - day, as a spe - cial child of God, has a fu - sion ev' - ry - where, in the in - no - cence of youth. The -sim - ple prayer of faith to - know the Fa - ther's will. For -Sus - que - han - na's banks they hum - bly prayed un - to the Lord. First mis - sion and a way to - hold the ir - on rod. To 9

5

Fa - ther and the Son filled the grove with hea - ven's light. They years an an - gel taught him un - til the time was right, then John the Bap - tist then three a - post - les came to share, the strength - en our own fam' - lies, to love our fel - low men. Pre - spoke to him as one, words of com - fort, truth, and right!

13

 by the pow'r of God, the Book of Mor - mon came to light.
 pow'r of God to build his - king - dom ev' - ry - where.
 pare the earth for when the - Sav - ior comes a - gain.

17

Truth re - stored through the mer - cy of the Lord.

21

Truth re - vealed through the pow - er of his will. The 25

hea - vens have op - ened in ful - fill - ment of his word. Let 29

all cre - a - tion praise God for his might - y truth re - stored.

Words: Spencer W. Burton © 2019

Music: Brenley Lewis Burton © 2019

This song may be copied for incidental, noncommercial church or home use.