♩ = 110 Joyfully

1. Fa - ther of light _ be - stows in the night _ His Christ - mas gift to the world, _
2. Heav - en - ly Son _ des - cends from His throne, _ Ex - alt - ing those who be - lieve. _
3. Ma - ry brings forth _ the gift of great worth, _ De - liv - er - ing God's be - loved Son. _

Our Sav - ior and King, the rea - son we sing _ And praise Him in one _ ac - cord.
We pon - der His love and gift from a - bove, _ Like Ma - ry that sa - cred eve.
As faith casts out fear, an an - gel makes clear _ Good tid - ings to eve - ry one.

Ba - by di - vine _ in ho - li - ness shines And glo - ri - fies Fa - ther's word. _
Ma - ry's em - brace of the Ba - by with grace Re - minds _ us all to re - ceive. _
"Glo - ry to God," heav - en's an - gels all laud, "And peace _ where good - will is done." _

His wis - dom to know and pow'r _ to grow, He of - fers us through the Lord. _
By cov - enant His hand and of - fer so grand To know of His kind re - lief. _
The an - gels re - joice in har - mo - nized voice, The light of the world shines on. _

4. An - gels pro - claim _ His won - der - ful name To shep - herds watch - ing their lambs. _
 5. Shep - herds in awe _ give glo - ry to God, Who shows _ His light is not far. _
 6. Wise men in prime _ all sac - ri - fice time, For Christ, _ their pur - pose and goal. _

In haste they pur - sue the Lamb of God who _ Is born near in Beth - le - hem. _
 He reach - es their hearts with sights He im - parts. _ To wise men He gives _ a star. _
 They work to pro - tect and seek to de - tect _ God's light and His guid - ing role. _

Shep - herds make news of their glo - rious views, And won - der moves through _ the land. _
 Stud - y - ing signs, they per - ceive the di - vine. The Spir - it con - firms what they are. _
 Fa - ther of light in His glo - ry and might, Il - lu - mi - nates will - ing souls. _

The shep - herds now see God's hu - mil - i - ty To come as the Son of Man. _
 They crown their be - lief by bring - ing re - lief To To Christ in their faith - ful arms. _
 He gives of His Son so we may be one Through Je - sus who makes us whole. _
