1. Dear Lord, have I left
(2. Dear) Lord, have I left an-y-thing un-done Be-fore the day-light ends with the set-ting sun? Do an-y-thing un-done Be-fore I can re-turn with the vic-t'ry won? Have

I still wear the stain of some fool-ish deed? If an-y spot re-mains, wilt thou wound-ing words been spoken to a foe or friend? Have ten-der hearts been broken, which are make me clean? Dear Lord, have I left an-y-thing un done? -- mine to mend? Dear Lord, have I left an-y-thing un-done? What Have I fed thy sheep; have I found the one-- That pre-cious soul a - stray placed with - work lies in - com - plete or has not be - gun? Have I re - ceived a call I did in my sight? What can I do or say now to share my light? Oh, not ful - fill? What pur - pose great or small must I strive for still? Oh, cresc.

strength-en me, I pray, so my lamp burns bright! have I giv'n my all? Have I done thy will? Am I rea-dy?
Am I rea-dy?

rit.

Am I rea - dy? Am I wor - thy? Can I stand pure and ho - ly be - fore thee? Am I striv - ing as I should be? Oh, dear Lord, wilt thou show me what more I can do to be rea - dy, to be wor - thy; help me be rea - dy.

2. Dear rea - dy. Dear Lord, wilt thou show me, and f strengthen me? Then I will be rea - dy, I will be rea - dy. p
