

Finding Home

Mandi Miller

$\text{♩} = 80$

1. I'm find-ing home, - where I feel wel-come and safe. -
2. My fam-ly's home - is such a hap-py a-bode, -
3. In-side my mind, - I have a hav-en for me, -
4. The tem-ple walls - block out all tum-ult and strife. -
5. All have a home, - we lived there just be-fore birth, -
6. I'm find-ing home, - where I feel wel-come and safe. -

mf Legato

5

- It's just like home - when I feel loved and in the right
- Filled with good works - and sym-pa-thet-ic hands - to
- where kind-ness dwells - and man-y pre-cious mem-o-
- There kin-dred hearts - wel-come me with friend-ly
- with lov-ing par-ents - who give sup-port and love on this
- It's just like home - when I feel loved and in the right place. I'm find - ing home; - that's where I want to be. This sense of hold. We know what's right, and we each - do our part. The love found ries. I pon - der truth, my life guid - ed by its light. And in the smiles. We work as one, bring - ing loved ones to - Christ. My mind is earth. All good - ness stems from our dwel - ling on - high. I'm near - est place. I'm right at home, and that's where I want to be. This sense of Rit.

 home, can it live in - side of me?
 here will - lin - ger in my heart.
 quiet, I - feel the peace in - side.
 clear. And my life - feels - bright.
 home, when I'm part-nered with - Christ.
 home, it can live in - side of me.

Rit. mp