

The Reflection of Thy Love

Words and Music by Martin Green

♩ = 80

Voice

Piano

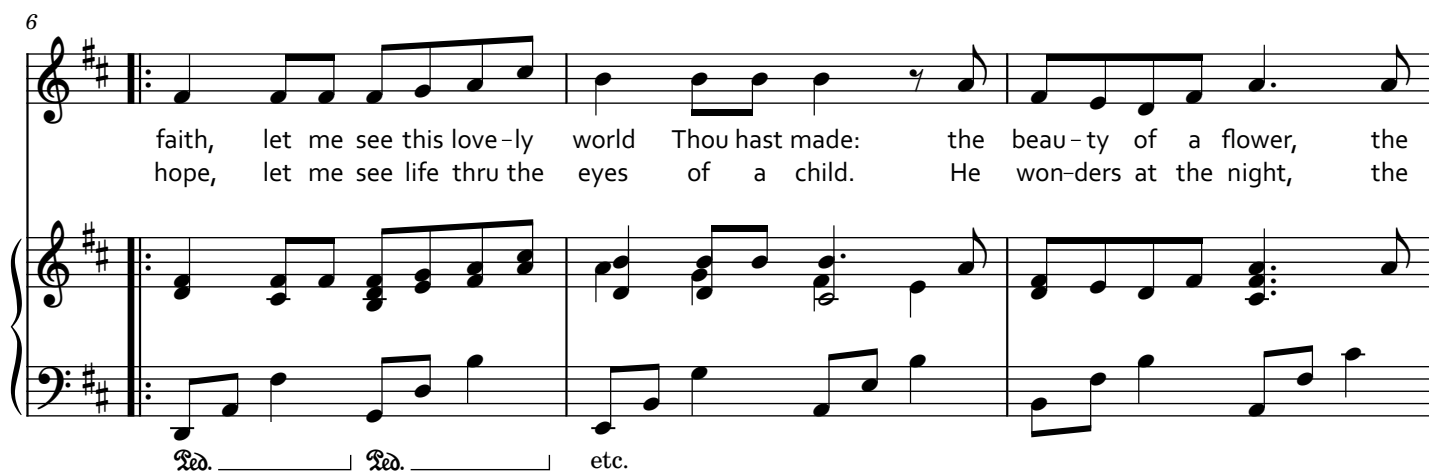

1.Through eyes of
2.Through eyes of

6

faith, let me see this love-ly world Thou hast made: the beau-ty of a flower, the hope, let me see life thru the eyes of a child. He won-ders at the night, the

Red. Red. etc.

9

sun-set of the hour. Let me be-hold in each cre - a - tion from a - bove sky at morn-ing light. I think I see as he looks up to me and smiles

©1991 Martin Green

This work may be copied for noncommercial church or home use

12

1. 2.

the re-flec-tion of Thy love. Through eyes of the re-flec-tion of Thy love.

L.H.

17

But there are shad-ows o-ver me. The light is hard-er now to see.

22

My heart is heav-y as I bear this load, and I'm all a - lone, no re-flec-tion.

28

Yet, there is One who watch-es me. The spi - rit whis-pers, and I see.

33

Through eyes of love, Thou hast taught us to be-lieve in Thy word, to fol low, to o-bey, and tempo primo

37

find the nar-row way. O, let me live my life that it will al-ways be the re-flec-tion of Thy

L.H.

41

rit. $\text{♩} = 80$

love. The re-flec-tion of Thy love.

45

And.