

In Chase of Grace

God reigns a - bove and coun - cils holds, While men on earth a - bide be - low. As He di -
 And go - ing, let their acts be free, Not tied by taint of Sa - tan's force. Let good deeds So trod the way the Sa - vior walked, And bow your head be - fore those trials. It may be But raise your eyes and re - a - lize That if you serve, then your life's sweet. Then in re -
 Oh then, dear men, do not des - pair, Fore - go your earth - ly plea - sures now; And roy - al

- rects the Plan un - folds. If men up - on His path will go, Their coun - te - nan - ces be done wil - ling - ly, Which car - ries men back to their source, And on to the true so, you will be mocked, Be - fore you've co - vered the last miles, Heed not the de - vil's
 - turn Christ will ap - prise You of your place be - side His Seat, And Hea - v'nly Fa - ther robes of light you'll wear, And on your head a shin - ing crown, So none can bring you glow.

 course.
 smiles.
 meet.
 down.