

Ten Thousand Legions*

♩ = 100

1. Like Ten thousand legions marching Moves a true stal-wart band of
2. Far a-cross oceans blue mighty waters Reaching di-stant and near by -

4 youth, Bold-ly tak-ing to all lands and peo-ple Zi-on's glo-rious song of shore. With the pro-mise of the new end-less cov-'nant To young and old to rich and 8 truth. Out of e-'vry na-tion surg-ing Seed of E-phra-im Is-ra-el's poor. Come ye na-tions out of dark-ness Now it's time to pre-pare for Christ's re-

12 band. Now they spread sal-va-tion's mes-sage In the tongues of e-'vry fa-vored turn. Heed the res-to-ra-tion's mes-sage; Let its ho-ly light with-in you

16 p Land. With the feel-ing heart and help-ing hand, With the feel-ing heart and help-ing burn. To the Sav-ior let your heart re-turn, To the Sav-ior let your heart re-

20 f hand, Now they spread salva-tions mes-sage In the tongues of e-'vry fa-vored land.
turn, Heed the res-to-ra-tions mes-age Let its Ho-ly light with-in you burn. rit.

Text Jean L. Kaberry 1918-1997

Music: Attr. to Thomas E. Williams, d. 1854

arr. Bryant Adams

Refer. LDS Hymns no. 248 & 253

* A legion in the Roman army was 3,000 to 6,000 men.

© Nov. 2010 BLA