

What Does It Mean To Be A Mother

Dorothy G. Killpack

Voice

mf  $\text{♩} = 80$  Tenderly mp

What does it

Piano

rit. mp

8va

V

6 mean to be - a moth - er How can I ev er ex

Pno.

6

V

11 plain? p 13 How could I tell you of a rain - bow

Pno.

11 p

16

V

A soft and gent - le sum - mer rain?

Pno.

21

V

mp

There's no - thing like a lov - ing mo - ther And no one

Pno.

26

V

ev - er quite so dear; She fills our hearts with joy and Pno.

31 mp

V glad - ness, We feel at peace when she is near.

Pno.

36 mf

V Mo - thers of - fer com - fort, en - cou - rage - ment, its true, So

Pno.

41

V when you're feel - ing down and out They know just what to do; Mo - thers list - en

Pno.

46

V

with their hearts, Lift us when we fall; There's no way my sim - ple song could

Pno.

51

V

ev - er say it all. f How can I best de - scribe a mo - ther?

Pno.

56

V

mp Her sweet for - giv - ing through the years;

Pno.

61 p

V You'd have to see to un - der - stand her strengths, Her sim - ple

Pno.

66 mf

V faith, her qui - et tears. I've looked and searched the whole world

Pno.

71

V o - ver And found one word that meets the test,

Pno.

76

V

So if you must de - fine a mo - ther

Pno.

81

V

Just think of love, that says it best. What does it

accel. p A Tempo

Pno.

86

V

mean to be a mo - ther? The word that says it all is Pno.

91

V

"love", A love that on - ly comes from mo ther,

Pno.

96

V

rit. A straight from Heav - en kind of love.

Pno.