5. Just look at Joshua, Jericho had walls around the town.
 They didn't frown when the Lord told them,
 "Make lots of sound." Yes!
 They knew without question, they had recollection
 Of their deliv'rance from others before,
 God cared, so they dared, even though such a simple task.
 Trumpets played, they marched 'round seven times,
 And the walls came tumbling down.
6. Just look at Nephi, he was young, so very young indeed.
 He had a need to ask God about his father's dream. Yes!
 He knew without question, the Lord would direct him,
 "I will go for I know that the Lord
 Will show me the way.
 I will do it, come what may.
 I will go, I will do what God asks!"
 He accomplished every task.
7. Just look at Sampson and Delilah, what a hairy deal.
 An angel told Sampson's mom he would help Israel.
 Well! He knew without question, he had recollection,
 Bare-handed he'd killed a lion one day.
 His strength was from God.
 Such a simple thing, his strength.
 In his hair, there was strength from God.
 And Delilah cut it off!
8. Just look at Joseph and his brothers, he was seventeen.
 He had a dream that his brothers would
 Bow down to him. Well!
 They knew without question, they had recollection,
 That their father loved Joseph much more.
 They sold him away, he became a slave that day.
 It was God that young Joseph obeyed.
 And from drought, his family saved.
